

400 CATHOLIC ORPHANS
TO BE GIVEN AN OUTING

Washington General Assembly, K. C.
to Be Their Host at Chesapeake Beach.

An outing at which the guests will be 400 Catholic orphans from six institutions in Washington, attended by more than forty sisters and a score of priests, is to be given by Washington General Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, at Chesapeake Beach Wednesday. Several thousand members of the order and their families will take advantage of the occasion to make the outing one of the largest and most successful affairs in the history of the Maryland and District knights. Final arrangements for this excursion are to be made tomorrow night at a meeting in Knights of Columbus Hall, called by Chairman C. W. Aughinbaugh.

Games Planned for Children.

Games of all kinds are planned for the amusement of the children, and useful and valuable prizes will be awarded in each event. This schedule of games is in charge of a committee familiar with the children from the various institutions, so that each of the little ones will be made to feel at home and encouraged to have the time of his or her young life.

An abundance of good things to eat, different from what the children have throughout the year, will be provided, including ice cream, candy, soda water and other such treats that these little people taste only on very rare occasions.

Those in Charge.

The officers of the general committee are: C. W. Aughinbaugh, chairman; R. J. Barrett, secretary, and B. F. Mayers, treasurer. The other committees are as follows:

COLORED WOMEN O. K.
HUGHES FOR PRESIDENT

Convention of National Association of Clubs Has Closed Sessions in Baltimore.

Resolutions endorsing the candidacy of Charles Evans Hughes for President were adopted at the tenth biennial convention of the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs at Baltimore last week. The convention opened last Sunday, continuing with morning and evening sessions until Thursday evening. Mrs. Booker T. Washington presided at all sessions. Mrs. Mary B. Talbert of Buffalo was chosen president for the ensuing two years.

Other resolutions adopted at the convention urged clubs of colored women to become familiar with laws of the various states and communities regarding sanitation and the improvement of general health conditions; endorsed the child labor bill now pending in Congress; urged the submission of the so-called Susan B. Anthony equal suffrage amendment to the Constitution; and recommended the enactment of a uniform divorce law.

The convention denounced all forms of discrimination in traveling based on consideration of color, styling such laws as operative in various states "a wrong, a disgrace and an indignity upon one-tenth of the most loyal citizens of this country."

The proposal of the National Memorial Association to erect in Washington a monument in honor of negro soldiers and sailors who have fought in all of the country's wars was endorsed and all clubs in the association were urged to support the movement. The resolutions also recommended the preparation of a monster petition to be presented to the President and to Congress protesting against lynchings and demanding justice before the law for colored men as well as for whites. The resolutions concluded with an expression of regret and acknowledgment of loss in the death of Booker T. Washington.

TO CONSIDER DISTRICT BILL.

Conferees, With Deadlock Unbroken, Will Meet Tomorrow.

The conferees of the Senate and House on the District appropriation bill are scheduled to meet tomorrow morning to continue their consideration of that measure. The conferees at present appear hopelessly deadlocked over the Senate amendment to strike out the House rider abolishing the half-and-half plan of appropriating for the District. It is considered likely that the conferees will report a disagreement on this amendment and ask further instructions regarding it.

Many other amendments of importance were added to the bill by the Senate, and it is expected that the conferees will attempt to reach an agreement as to these.
